

EGL is looking for a communication officer

25/06/2021 - News from Europe Goes Local

To support the coordinator of the European network project Europe Goes Local, we are looking for a project officer Communication Management for the period 1/09/2021 – 30/06/2023.

In consultation with the project coordinator, you will be responsible for the internal communication with/in the European network of National Agencies, for the cooperation with the communication agency and for the external communication resulting from the project, via social media, the EGL website, etc.

We are looking for a digital native who is passionate about communication and wants to use the know-how from a first work or internship experience to grow and make a difference. Someone who likes to work together but who also knows how to work independently. The ability to express yourself fluently in English, both verbally and in writing, is of course a must if you are going to take part in this ambitious international project.

Please, read the description of the vacancy about the details and about how to apply. And use the application form to apply.

Deadline to apply: 16 July (midnight, CET).
